Floyd, VA

Scholarship Application

Hollingsworth & Vose Company will award a $1000 scholarship to a qualifying Floyd County High School senior enrolled in a program leading to a degree in a technical field such as engineering, electronics, or industrial maintenance.

The scholarship will be awarded in memory of Mark Hollingsworth, former CEO of Hollingsworth & Vose Company, in honor of his influence and contributions to Floyd County.

Continuous learning is essential to succeeding in today's business environment. H&V believes in the growth and development of its people, and by funding this scholarship, we encourage Floyd County High School students to excel in their academic and extra-curricular activities.

The scholarship will be awarded based on academic performance, school activities, community service, references, and essay quality.

Your application should include a one-page essay outlining your career goals and how the scholarship can help you to meet those goals. Please also provide the following:

1. A list of any extra curricular activities and/or work experience
2. Two letters of reference: one from a faculty member and one from a community member (not a faculty or family member)

The scholarship will be awarded upon notification from the admissions office that the student has enrolled. The funds will be disbursed directly to the financial office of the college or university. Scholarships are for the first year of study only. If the student should withdraw from the college prior to the completion of the first year of study, all funds must be returned to the scholarship fund. The deadline for applications is 3/30/12. The completed application should be returned to the guidance counselor. Hollingsworth & Vose Company reserves the right to reject any and all applications at its sole discretion.

By signing the application below, the student authorizes the faculty of Floyd County High School to make available to Hollingsworth & Vose Company your high school transcript to be used in evaluating the application for this scholarship.
